The stone entryway flows into the entry hall and continues out to the covered stone patio. Reclaimed wood floors and beams, walls of glass and forever views of Long Island Sound create the harmony of vision that is the essence of this jewel.

The open and welcoming first floor living spaces capture the ever changing waterfront scenery, whether in the office, great room, dining room or kitchen. Tranquility is exercising in the indoor resistance pool, looking out across the patio and pool to the waterfront.

The first-floor studio can be used as a workroom, playroom, additional office or first floor bedroom.

The second floor family room is near the other three bedrooms and set apart from the living areas of the home. Skylights, beautifully angled ceiling lines and sensational views make the third floor studio a tranquil retreat.

All three floors are accessible by elevator, making Paradise Point the dream of a lifetime.
